Emerging Scholar Award: What You Should Know

About the Society

Founded in 1897, The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi is the nation's oldest, largest, and most selective all-discipline honor society. For more information about Phi Kappa Phi and its other awards programs and member benefits, go to PhiKappaPhi.org.

Introduction

As part of its efforts to recognize and encourage academic achievement in all disciplines, The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi is pleased to sponsor this Emerging Scholar Award competition. The Phi Kappa Phi Board of Directors encourages qualified undergraduates in all areas of study to apply. The program is designed to help support you as you seek knowledge and experience in your academic field.

Each year, Phi Kappa Phi grants 60 Emerging Scholar Awards of $250 each.

Eligibility

The competition for Phi Kappa Phi Emerging Scholar Awards is open to students in all fields of study. Applicants must meet the following eligibility requirements based on the 2007–2008 academic year:

- ◆ Attend an institution with a Phi Kappa Phi chapter (see www.PhiKappaPhi.org/Web/Chapters for listing);
- ◆ Have a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of at least 3.75 on a 4.0 scale;
- ◆ You must have been enrolled as a full-time student during the fall 2007 and spring 2008 academic year;
- ◆ Have a minimum of 30 semester hours (or equivalent, excluding all AP, Credit by Exam, transfer credits, etc.) of academic credit;
- ◆ PLEASE NOTE: You must have earned no more than 60 semester hours (excluding all AP, Credit by Exam, transfer credits, etc.) during your post high school academic career.

Deadline and Notification

Your application must arrive at Society Headquarters on or before July 14, 2008. Materials arriving after July 14 will not be considered.

Winners will be announced by August 29, 2008.
