

our story

Phi Eta Sigma is a national honor society rewarding academic excellence in first year college students. As the nation's oldest and largest first year honor society, Phi Eta Sigma was founded at the University of Illinois on March 22, 1923. We now have more than 1.35 million inducted members!

Phi Eta Sigma takes a great deal of pride in the accomplishments of our students and chapters. We provide our members with national and regional events, leadership opportunities, and scholarships. All while we have one of the lowest membership fees of any nationally recognized honor society.
